

Make Some Noise

I'm not sure what you just heard, but I know a simple trick.
You put both hands up, clap them above,
Do it, do it just like this.
I think I might have caught the dancing sickness,
Never ever had a fever like this.
But where's the fun in being normal anyway-ay-ay.

OK, 5 4 3 2 1

I feel like turning it up, breaking it down, jump on my feet, don't touch the ground.
You got a voice, you got a choice, come on get loud, let's make some noise.
Sing it like, Ooh. Ooh.

This is the time, it's you and I, let's get la la la la loud.
Make some noise.

Scream out loud twist, twist and shout, do whatever you want to.
And if you're stuck in the middle, boogie just a little and I bet you won't feel so blue.
No, tell me do you feel the speakers pumpin'?
I ain't stopping 'til the whole room's jumpin'.
It's o k to get crazy now and then.
